

Insurance, Do You Have Enough?

Ten reasons why people don't buy life insurance (and why to reconsider them)

- 1 I'm too young. It's simple: the younger you buy it, the less expensive it will be, and the less chance you'll have of developing a medical condition that could put life insurance out of reach.
- 2 I'm too old. Did you know the Knights of Columbus offers some permanent (or "whole") life insurance policies even up to age 80?
- 3 I can't afford it. Have you really checked? Call me. Even when money is tight, you'd be surprised how much you can free up to provide at least basic protection for your family.
- 4 I hate thinking about death. You've got it backward. Life insurance means thinking about life—specifically, your family's quality of life.

- 5 It's better to invest the money in stocks and/or bonds. Investments can be an important part of a balanced financial portfolio. But their purpose is long-term growth. Life insurance serves a more basic, immediate purpose: protecting families from sudden financial distress.
- 6 It's not a good value. Security has enormous value in any economy, and the Knights of Columbus offers only safe, guaranteed products. We've earned A.M. Best's top rating (A++ Superior) for 37 consecutive years.
- 7 I have it through work. How much, exactly? Also, keep in mind that your coverage will probably end if/when you leave that employer—which may happen after you've reached an age or condition that will disqualify you from affordable coverage on your own.
- 8 If I can't continue making payments, the policy will be canceled and I'll lose everything I've paid. This is unlikely if you're sold the right amount of protection at the right price. The life insurance industry's lapse rate is 6.1%, but the lapse rate for our Order's policies is only 3.5%.*

- 9 I have enough already. This is the only good reason—but it's rarely true.
- 10 I'll choose the wrong kind and be stuck with it. That's where I come in. Call me and let's talk about your family's needs and the flexible options you have to address those needs.

YOUR SHIELD FOR LIFE

“The Sacred Triduum”

The weeks of Lent are quickly coming to a close and helping us prepare for the three holiest days of the Church year. Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

The Church purposely does not make Holy Thursday and Good Friday holy days of obligation because, just like on Ash Wednesday, the Church hopes people will “freely” celebrate these days for the honor and love of God.

After a long hard days work, it is difficult to have a quick supper and then go to Church for the Holy Thursday Mass with the washing of feet and the procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar of Reposition followed by some time in Adoration. It is important to remember that Holy Thursday is not just a re-enactment of what happened two thousand years ago, but a “memorial”, making real again what happened two thousand years ago. We are there in the upper-room with Jesus and the Apostles. Together with Jesus we celebrate the “priesthood” He created so that the sacrament of the Eucharist and the other sacraments would always be there for us; so that the beautiful and power words of the 6th Chapter of St. John’s Gospel about Jesus being our “Bread of Life” will always be available to us; so that the example and command of Jesus to “love one another as I have loved you” would always be the force behind our living our faith in all the areas of our daily lives.

I remember going to Church with my mother and not understanding every thing that was going on, but just watching and listening made me realize this was something very special to God.

For those who are able to go, there should be no need for words to encourage people to attend the 3:00p.m. “Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion”. Love alone should do that.

The Easter Vigil with its “Liturgy of the Light”, “baptism of the Elect; the reception of those coming into full union with the Church” and the Easter Eucharist is the most beautiful celebration of love between ourselves and the Holy Trinity. It is out of love for God for sending Jesus to live and die for our salvation that we celebrate this long Liturgy of remembrance and thanksgiving. Through the symbols, readings and celebration of Eucharist we thank God personally and communally for the greatest things He has done for us and continues to do for us. No Eucharistic celebration through out the whole Church Year says so much to God about our understanding of who we are; where we are going and the means God has given us to reach our heavenly union with the Holy Trinity. The Church enriched the Eucharistic Celebration of Easter so we could have a most beautiful gift to give God in thanksgiving for all He has given us.

Please don’t pass up the opportunity to celebrate these Holy Days. May God bless you and your family this Easter with the graces and blessings He wants most for you to have.

In Jesus Crucified and Risen,

Fr. Edward, C.P.

As you know we will soon be holding elections and appointments for officers and directors for next year and we need some of your talents if we are to continue with all of our endeavors. At our March business meeting we will be discussing this in much detail and need your feedback. Just being a Knight is one thing, but taking on the role of an officer or director allows one to really go forth and express your true talents.

This council has been blessed to have some great men who have exhibited leadership qualities and there are many more of you who possess these same traits.

Please be open minded at our next meeting and consider taking on one of these positions. It is a virtue that is essential to success of our council and is most gratifying.

Grand Knight Report

Brothers all,

Well, here we are in the middle of Lent! Our Fish Fry's are going great with awesome attendance, we are moving along with all the projects and events that we have planned and/or helping with and our Council is in great shape. The unity we showed at last month's business meeting was nothing short of spectacular. For all of us to meet at Sacred Heart Cathedral for the 6:30 PM Ash Wednesday Mass and then meet in their school hall for our monthly business meeting was well received. I want to personally thank our Warden and his guards for all their hard work in setting up the hall and then making sure it was left the way the school needs it for the following day.....Thank you again!

I would also like to thank our guests who came and saw firsthand how we Knights conduct ourselves at a meeting and am glad to report we even picked up anew candidate for admission at our next degree.

After Easter, the next big event coming up is the O'Berry Center Picnic on Saturday, May 3rd and I hope many of you can make this again this year. This a great opportunity for you and your families to see where the Knights contributions go to work and it's fun cooking and serving lunch to the residents and staff of this facility, so stay on the lookout for more information.

In the past few months we have been running full steam and there are a lot of people , not just members, but their families and friends that help out in all we do. As grand Knight I try my best to remember all those who help, but sometimes I fall short and don't get a chance to thank everyone, so here goes. Please accept my heart warmed thanks to all of you who do so much. Your help and care does not go unnoticed by me or those you help. To all my brothers, please relay this message to all your family members and friends and again, thank you!

May you all have a blessed Easter and may god look upon with love and grace.

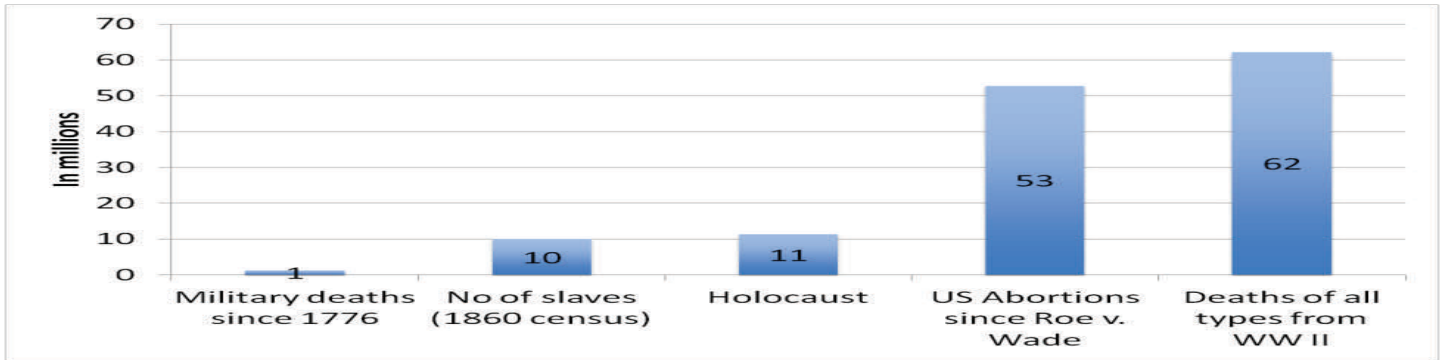

Vivat Jesus

Some Interesting Statistics You May Not Know about Abortion

Below is a graph show the extent of the evil of abortion. It rivals all in number of deaths except WWII. And even then, over half the number of deaths in WWII were mostly civilians in the Soviet Union and China.

Family

Well, we didn't have a big response for our Family Feud night last week. Perhaps the fish fry was not the best venue, but those of us who gave it a try had a good time though. We might try again in the future. I also wanted to thank everyone who helped my fourth grade class make money for their school service project by buying something from our bake sale.

I'm looking into going to a Mudcats game in May before it gets too hot, preferably on a Friday so we can also see the fireworks, more details to follow.

We have another game night planned for the 6th of June. All of your old favorites will be back with maybe a few new ones. We'll try and have a simple meal like we did last time or maybe just order some pizza. If you have any suggestions for games or food, send me a quick email: wmilowic@gmail.com.

Finally, there are quite a few little things that need constant upkeep at the council, replacing light bulbs, painting, etc. I happen to enjoy tinkering and doing small maintenance and I was wondering if there was anyone else out there who also has the Handyman Gene (somewhere on the Y chromosome). If you do, I was hoping to form a Maintenance Committee. We would get a small group together roughly once a month to go over to the council building and do some work. If you are interested, and maybe have special skills that could be put to use, please email me or give me a call. (919-327-3227)

Council 2546 Free Throw Championship

Five boys and two girls from Raleigh, NC ages 9-14 were named local champions for the 2014 Knights of Columbus Free Throw Championship and have earned the right to compete at the state level. A total of 28 participants competed for the local and district championship. Father Price Council 02546 in Raleigh, NC sponsored the local competition at Magellan Charter School. All youngsters ages 9-14 were eligible to participate.

Hannah Olson (9 years old) was the 10 year old girls' champion and Kate Kilpatrick (9 years old) was second place.

Jacob Glover was the winner of the 10 year old boys' division with Luke Mulik in second place. Jacob and Luke tied and had to shoot 5 extra free throws to determine a winner.

Langdon Aronson was the 11 year old champion with David Dixon coming in second place.

Coley Kilpatrick was the 12 year old champion and Chase Forte was the runner-up

Savannah Stovall was the girls' 13 year old champion and Jacob Feinstein won the boys 13 year old division with Luke White coming in second place

Chase Bessard was the boys 14 year old champion.

Each contestant was allowed 15 free throw attempts in the contest. Ties were settled by successive rounds of 5 free throws per contestant until a winner emerged. Each of these winners are eligible to compete in the state title (except for 9 year olds, just local) with an eye on being the State Free Throw Champion!
